

STINGER SPORTS

October 14, 1985

CONCORDIA HOSTS DIVISION I TEAM IN HOME OPENER

For the first time in 10 years a Division I basketball team will dribble and slam dunk in a Stinger gym. The University of Maine Black Bears will provide Concordia with some first-rate competition in their home opener, October 21st at 8 P.M.

A series of first rate American University teams will be passing through the Concordia Athletic Complex during the 1985 - 86 season. Maine will be the first, St. Johns and Providence will follow.

Stinger Coach Doug Daigneault says the Maine-Concordia match up, "will be a great start to a great season". He plans to counter the Black Bears massive forwards (6'9" to 6'11") with 6'9" Steve Mau, 6'8" Rob Latter, 6'5" Biagio Caresse, 6'5" Conference All-Star Craig Norman and 6'3" Chris Francis.

The game will be a tremendous chance for students, coaches and sports enthusiasts to see some top-notch basketball.